May 29, 1845.

SEPARATE SEALED PROPOSALS for furnishing stationery and executing printing for for this department during the year ending June 30, 1846, will be received until 3 o'clock of Monday, the 30th of June next. Those unaccompanied by satisfactory teatmonials of ability to fulfil a contract will not be considered.

All the articles of stationery must be of the very best quality—samples of the principal articles of which, such as paper, quills, metallic pens, lead pencils, knives, ink, &c., must accompany the bids. No bid will be considered where the articles accompanying it are not of the kind and quality required for the department. The articles must be equal in all respects to the samples, which may be seen in the department; and the printing must be executed with new and perfect type, and on the best paper used for the different descriptions required. The paper for the printing will be furnished by the contractor. The articles and work will be required from time to time as they are wanted, and will be paid for querterly; and a failure to execute any requirement of a contract, of which the head of the department will be the final judge, will cause a forfeiture of the contract. To insure a faithful execution of the contract. To insure a faithful execution of the contract, a bond, with two or more sureties in each case, will be required within one week after notification of the acceptance of a bid. The names of the sureties that will be given, must be stated in the bid; and, if they are not attisfactory, the bid will not be considered.

The subjoined lists specify, as nearly as can now be done, the amount, quantity, and description of each of the kinds of the articles and work that will be wanted; but the department will reserve the right to require more or less as circumstances may render necessary. To insure uniformity in the bids, forms embracing the quantities and descriptions of the articles and work that may be required, will be furnished to those disposed to bid. GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY Coughs, Colds, Asthma, and Consumpt Asthma, and Consumption, is the Hungarian Balsam of Life, discovered by the celebrated Dr. Buchan of London, England, and introduced into the United States under the immediate superin-

the United States under the immediate superintendence of the inventor.

The extraordinary success of this medicine in the curse of pulmonary diseases, warrants the American agent in soliciting for treatment the WORST POS-SIBLE CASES that can be found in the community; cases that seek relief in vain from any of the common remedies of the day, and have been given up by the most distinguished physicians as confirmed and incurable. The Hungarian Balsam has cured, and will cure, the most desperate of cases. It is no quack nostrum, but a standard English medicine, of known and established efficacy.

Every family in the United States should be supplied with Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life, not only to counteract the consumptive tendencies of the climate, but to be used as a preventive medicine in all cases of Coids, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Pain in the Side and Chest, Irritation and Soreness of the Lungs, Bronchitis, Difficulty of Breathing, Hectic Fever, Night Swests, Emaciation and General Debdity, Asthma, Influenza, Hooping-Cough, and Croup.
